

GOAL-MOUTH ACTION — Alf Coletti of the Sault Canadians reaches out for a loose puck to the side of Thunder Bay Twins goalie Bob Kilgour during action in last night's USHL contest at the Memorial Gardens. The Canadians staged a third period comeback in the game, punching home six goals in the final frame to send the contest into overtime. All-star defenceman John Longarini potted the winning goal in the overtime period to give the Canucks a close 10-9 triumph. The same two clubs tangle again at the Gardens Sunday night.
