

Thunder Bay Raps Bobcats In USHL Test

Post-Crescent News Service

THUNDER BAY, Ont. — Thunder Bay, paced by Mike Mithrush's three goal hat trick, exploded for five straight goals in the second period to smash the Green Bay Bobcats 7-2 here Sunday afternoon.

The loss left the Bobcat's with a 3-6 United States Hockey League record while the Twins now have a 5-4 log and are in third place.

Thunder Bay outshot Green Bay, 31-22, with Green Bay goalie Jim Mattson turning back 24 shots while the Twins' Bob Kilgour kicked out 20.

The score was tied at 2-2 before Mithrush got the Twins going with his first goal with 5:12 gone in the second period.

He followed with his second at the 8:43 mark, putting Thunder Bay on top, 4-2, and wound up the spree with his hat trick goal at the 19:01 mark. In between his second and third goals, Jack Owchar and Gary Mork each tallied for the Twins.