
Westfort advances

FORT WILLIAM (CP)—Westfort Hurricanes downed St. James Canadians 6-4 Wednesday to take their best-of-seven Western Memorial Cup quarter-final 4-2 before 4,000 fans.

Westfort now meets Estevan Bruins here Friday in the first game of a best-of-seven semi-final. The second and third games of that series also will be played here Sunday and Monday.

In Wednesday's action, Westfort withstood fierce checking by St. James and took a 3-1 lead after the first period. The clubs settled into a close-checking game in the second with Hurricanes emerging with a 6-4 lead. There was no scoring in the third.

Rick Sandberg and Jim Kovalenko each fired a pair of goals in leading the Westfort attack, while singles were added by Vern Campigotto and George Letowski.

Wayne Chernecki, Bill Moir, Andy Hellemond and Warren Harrison scored for St. James.
