FORT WILLIAM (CP) — Fort William Canadiens Monday night hammered out a 6-2 victory over Port Arthur North Stars to win the Thunder Bay Junior hockey final playoffs four games to three.

In an unusual move, Canadiens' President Chris Asseff replaced regular coach Mickey Hennessy with manager Joe Ni-gro for the game after the team lost three straight games after building up an early three game lead in the series.

In the game, Murray Smith and Bob Munro each scored twice for Fort William while Ralph Bunt and Ralph Stewart scored singles.

Allan Clark and Norm Boon scored for North Stars.

Bob Smith of the North Stars Monday was handed a one-year suspension by the Thunder Bay Amateur Hockey Association for his part in a brawl Wednesday at Fort William Gardens.

Smith entered a penalty-box fight between teammate Norm Boon and Canadiens' Don Fedun. The ensuing brawl surged into the corridors and involved officials, fans and more players before it was broken up.

At Monday's meeting, the association also suspended Fedun and Canadiens' John Schella for the balance of the series. Fedun was involved in a fight in Friday's fifth game, drawing a game misconduct, and Schella took a major and match for attempt to injure in Sunday's sixth game.
